PRICE THREE CENTS

THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. Cleveland is Royally Received at Richmond and Makes a Speech.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The president, accompanied by Secretaries Bayard and Endicott, Postmaster General Vilas and Private Secretary Lamont, left here at 8 this morning on a special train for Richmond, Va., to attend the fair of the Virginia Agricultural association.

AT RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 21.—The presidential party arrived shortly before noon and were met by the governor and reception committee with proper escort and conveyances. A few minute's drive brought the party to the fair grounds and as the head of the line filed into the main entrance, the presidential salute of twenty-one guns was fired by the Richmond Howitzers.

Inside the gates, drawn up in line, were the military, consisting of a regiment of Virginia volunteers, the Richmond light infantry, the Richmond Blues, and three companies of visiting soldiery, and also a battalion of colored troops. After a brief formal reception in the society's office, the president and party stepped on the veranda in view of the multitude.

Governor Lee made a brief address of welcome to the president on behalf of Virginia, and the president of the society welcomed him to the farmers. After deafening and prolonged cheers and waving of handkerchiefs, the president spoke as follows:

FELLOW CITIZENS OF VIRGINIA:—While I thank you most sincerely for your kind reception and recognize the heartiness and the hospitality, for which the people of Virginia have always been distinguished, I am fully aware that your demonstration of welcome is tendered, not to the individual, but to an incumbent of the office which crowns the government of the United States. The state of Virginia, the mother of presidents, (seven of whose sons have filled that place,) to-day greets a president who, for the first time, meets Virginians upon Virginia's soil. I congratulate myself that my first introduction to the people of Virginia occurs at a time when they are surrounded by exhibits of the productiveness and prosperity of their state.

What ver there may be in honor of her history, and however much of pride their may be in her tradition, her true greatness is here exemplified. In our sisterhood of states, the leading and most commanding place must be gained and kept by that commonwealth which, by the labor and intelligence of her citizens, can produce the most of those things which meet the necessities and desires of mankind. The efforts and struggles of her farmers and toilers produce rugged, self-reliant and independent men, and cultivate that product more than all others which enables a state to have a patriotic American citizenship. This will flourish in every part of the American domain. Neither drought nor rain can injure it, for it takes root in true hearts, enriched by love of country. There are no new varieties in this production, it must be the same where ever seen, and its quality is neither sound or genuine unless it grows to dock and beautify the entire united nation, nor unless it supports and sustains the institutions and government founded to protect American liberty and happiness. The present administration of the government is pledged to return for such husbandry, not only promises, but actual tenders of fairness and justice, with equal protection and full participation in national achievements. If, in the past we have been, estranged, and the cultivation of American citizenship has been interrupted, your enthusiastic welcome to-day demonstrates that there is an end to such estrangement and that the time of suspicion and fear is succeeded by an era of faith and confidence. In such kindly atmosphere and beneath such cheering skies, I greet the people of Virginia, as co-laborers in a field where grows love of our united country. God grant that in years to come, Virginia, the old dominion, mother of presidents, she who looked on the nation at its birth, may not only increase her trophies of growth in agriculture and manufactures, but that she may be among the first of all states in cultivation of true American citizenship.

Confesses His Crime.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—A special from Des Moines, Iowa, says: Albert Kornitzki, alias "Bismarck," one of the principal witnesses in the Haddock murder case at Sioux City, has made a full and complete confession of his connection with the murder, to which he was an eye witness. The confession is now in the hands of the Sioux City authorities.

J. G. BLAINE,

Accompanied by Friends Visits His Old Home in Virginia.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 21.—Hon. James G. Blaine, accompanied by a number of old schoolmates and personal friends, left for Brownsville, Va., the home of his youth, at 10 o'clock, this morning. While en route, Mr. Blaine will make brief addresses at West Elizabeth and Mount Vernon. The party will return to this city, and on Friday, Mr. Blaine will visit at Washington, Pa.

Fire Record.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 21.—The total loss in the penitentiary fire this morning will not exceed $20,000; one-half insured.

AURORA, Ind., Oct. 21.—Sutton's sawmill and lumber yards burned this morning. Loss, $20,000; insurance, $12,000. GRAND LEDGE, Mich., Oct. 21.—Fire broke out in the curtain roller factory, and about 250 feet of buildings lining the river bank were destroyed, including Hickson, Tinkham & Co's saw mill, Waldo & West's planing mill and chair factory. Loss, $30,000. Insurance, $9,300.

A Vessel Lost.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 21.—The owners of the schooner, George L. Smith, which sailed for Grand Banks, August 14, on a halibut voyage, have given her up for lost. She carried a crew of fourteen men.

American Missionary Convention.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 20.—The annual meeting of the American Missionary association opened here yesterday with a large attendance of delegates. There were 1,200 applications to the committee on entertainment.

CHICAGO.

A Rather Startling Batch of News from the Great City.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—Judge Prendergast this morning issued an order for the arrest of forty election judges and clerks for not returning the registry books to the election commissioners within the time prescribed by law.

Bradley, the Pullman defaulter, was taken before Judge Collins, this morning, and pleaded guilty. Judge Collins sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary at Joliet. Bradley was taken there by the noon train.

Weather Indications.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The weather indications are as follows: Ohio, fair weather, lower, followed by higher temperature.

Michigan, Kentucky, Indiana, fair weather, warmer.

Syndicate Established.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 21.—Preliminary steps have been taken by the window glass manufacturers to establish a national syndicate, the object being to advance and maintain the prices.

Don't be Alarmed.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—The Journal de St. Petersburg says there is no real justification for the fall in Russian securities and nervousness on Bourse in regard to the condition of the Bulgarian question. "Peace will not be disturbed," adds the paper, "all powers recognize Russia's rights. The crisis is localized to Bulgaria."

Episcopal Convention.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Episcopal convention resumed the discussion on the proposition to drop the words "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of their prayer book. After much discussion this and motions of a similar import were lost.

The President's Gift.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 21.—The president has sent $100 to the sufferers at Sabine Pass.

MINISTERS MEET.

The Fort Wayne Preachers in Session at Bluffton.

The fifth annual meeting of the preachers of the Fort Wayne district, northern Indiana conference, convened in the M. E. church at Bluffton, Monday evening, 7:30 p. m. After prayer by Rev. D. C. Woolpert, of Berry street church, Fort Wayne, Rev. J. A. Lewellen of Ossian, preached the opening sermon; text, Hebrews, 11th chapter, 1st verse. Tuesday morning's session was opened by devotional service, conducted by Rev. H. S. Watson, of Sheldon. Rev. C. W. Lynch, presiding elder; took the chair and organization was effected. Rev. A. T. Briggs was elected secretary.

"How to Make a Prayer Meeting Successful," was opened by Rev. A. T. Briggs and discussed.

Tuesday afternoon's session was opened by J. W. Singer, after which Rev. H. Bridge preached from St. John, XIV. 12.

In the evening a large audience assembled to hear D. C. Woolpert. He took for his text, "My peace I give unto you."

Resolutions of condolence were sent to the family of J. J. Todd, and the roll call showed the following ministers present: C. W. Lynch, J. A. Lewellen, F. G. Browne, D. C. Woolpert, B. S. Holloper, T. F. Frech, M. S. Metts, J. A. Beatty, I. W. Singer, H. S. Watson, A. T. Briggs, H. J. Meek, J. E. Ervin.

THE SECOND DAY.

The Presbyterian Board of Missions at Work for a Good Cause.

The sessions of the board of missions of the synod of Indiana develop much interest, and the chief topic this morning was the handsome gifts to the cause from the late Hon. J. L. Williams, Mrs. E. M. Hubbard, of New Albany, and Mrs. Charles Little, of Wabash, led in devotion. Miss Carrie Sharp, of this city, read a paper on "Home Missions," Miss Boles, of Texas, read a paper, and besides this there were reports and religious exercises. The afternoon program was:

AFTERNOON SESSION.

2:00.—Devotional exercises, led by Mrs. M. A. Shulze, Kendallville.

Presbyterial reports. Report of committee on nominations. "Individual Responsibility in Home Missions," Mrs. W. S. Mills, Crawfordsville.

Address—"The Outlook," Mrs. Chas. E. Walker, Colorado. Report of committee on resolutions. Farewell words, Mrs. J. F. Kendall, Laporte. Singing. Benediction.

EVENING SESSION.

7:30.—Opening devotional exercises. Synodical report. Mrs. M. E. Goodman, Kendallville.

Address—"The Freeman," Mrs. J. P. E. Kauler, Pittsburgh. Address—"The Work," Miss Alice Robertson, Indian Territory.

The St. Paul's Church Fair.

There was another great crowd at the festival at Library hall last night and the voting contests closed as follows:

The dressing gown and slippers to be voted to the most popular dentist, now stands: Dr. H. C. Sites, 27; Dr. G. W. Loag, 49; Dr. S. B. Brown, 13; Dr. W. W. Shryock, 12; Dr. E. F. Sites, 11.

This contest will close this evening at 11 o'clock.

The contest between the conductors closed with this score: Joseph L. Gruber, 15; Dan M. Hayes, 14; Harry Gardner, 25; Andy J. Dawson, 14; Chas. Rodenburg, 11.

The contest will close on Saturday evening.

The contest which is exciting the most interest is for the Texas pony for the most popular retail grocer. The animal was donated by Messrs. Skelton, Watt & Bond, and the score now stands: John Haag, 14; Hartman & Rose, 11; J. Scheiffer & Co., 11; Kayser & Baade, 14; Zoller & Metz, 13; John Wessel, jr., 10; J. H. Hartman, 18; W. H. Miller, 11; Joseph Langard, 12; August Huxoll, 11; L. F. Butler, 10.

PAPER pipes for water and gas have been exhibited in Vienna. They are rolled from sheets of paper, and coated on the inside with an enamel of secret composition. In winding the paper is soaked in melted asphalt, and the pipe is painted outside with asphalt varnish, and dusted over with sand. It is claimed that such a pipe will resist some 2,000 pounds internal pressure, although the material is only about half an inch thick.

M. KATKOFF, editor of the most important of the Russian newspapers, is classed by the Pall Mall Gazette as "one of the two rulers of Russia." The Czar is first, of course; but M. Katkoff, (whose name sounds funny only to weak-minded Americans and the British) is the very brain of the Great Bear. The Czar but lately honored M. Katkoff with a decoration, and then pointed to him with the finger of affection as the expounder of the Slavonic policy.

HON. J. L. WILLIAMS.

His Last Will is Filed for Public Record—He Gives $12,000 to the Presbyterian Church Missions.

Yesterday afternoon, at 4:30, the will of the late Hon. Jesse L. Williams was filed with County Clerk Maier for probate. The will bears date May 8, 1883, and a codicil thereto bears date March 30, 1885.

By the first clause he directs all his just debts paid, after which he devises to his wife, Susan C. Williams, one-third part of his remaining estate, both real and personal; also all his household furniture, library, private papers, horses and carriages.

By the second clause, he bequeaths to his sisters, Sarah T. Mendenhall and Eliza D. Burgess, each $2,000; to Ellen A. Dawkins, $2,000, and to his three nieces, Sallie A. Hopkins, Sadie and Mary Mendenhall, each $2,000.

By the third clause he sets aside $12,000 for the missionary work of the Presbyterian church, $8,000 of which his executors are directed to pay to the board of foreign missions, and $4,000 to the board of home missions of the Presbyterian church.

By the third clause he directs his executors to equalize the advances made to his sons.

By the fifth clause he devises the residue of his estate to his three sons as follows: To Edward P. Williams, one-ninth, and to Meade C. Williams and Henry M. Williams, each four-ninths. He appoints his wife, Susan C. Williams, and his three sons, Edward P., Meade C. and Henry M. Williams, executors without bonds.

By the codicil he gives to the six nieces of his wife, Maggie T., Bettie and Janie B. Creighton and Susan W., Sara W. and Julie E. Ball, each $1,000.

The will and codicil were both witnessed by Hon. Charles McCulloch and John Mohr, jr. The following paper was filed with the will:

"We, Mead C. Williams and Henry M. Williams, two of the sons of the late J. L. Williams, regret that the will of our father shows an inequality (not so great, however, as it appears) in the provisions relating to his children. The reasons for this—probably, differences in the respective circumstances of his sons financially, or with reference to their children, or both—are such as we are unwilling to profit by. We are positive that his three sons were equally esteemed by him, and we believed he did not contemplate that any inequality of condition would result from the provisions of his will. We have, therefore, proposed to our brother, Edward P. Williams, and have arranged for such an adjustment of interests as shall accomplish an equal distribution of that portion of our father's estate devised to his three sons. This action was resolved upon by us spontaneously, each for himself, on the first reading of the will, and without any complaint from our brother, or any suggestion whatever from him."

(Signed,) MEAD C. WILLIAMS.
) HENRY M. WILLIAMS.

A LESSON.

Astronomy as Suggested by a Joint Political Discussion and the Flight of Time.

THE SENTINEL astronomer often marvels on heavenly phenomena and was in a mood to incline that way last night, after listening to a joint discussion at New Haven. He pointed to Bird Wiley, Bob DeWald and Henry Monning, how the golden hours were flying by and even October dropped the curtain an hour earlier on sunlight.

On the 1st the sun rose at 5:41 a. m., and set at 5:26 p. m., making the length of the day 11 hours, 45 minutes. On the 31st the sun rises at 6:17 a. m., and sets at 4:38 p. m., making the length of the day 10 hours and 31 minutes. The amount of the day's decrease in October therefore is 1 hour and 24 minutes. Thus on the last day of the month the days are nearly an hour and a half shorter than they were at the commencement.

The sun's position in the heavens gives another indication of the season's advance. Observers will readily note that the sunrise and sunset points seem to move rapidly southward. On the 1st the sun's declination was 3 deg. 16 min. south; on the 31st it is 14 deg. 16 min. south. The sun therefore advances 10 deg. 55 min. on his southern course during the month. The further the sun moves to the south the shorter is the circuit he makes in the heavens and the less in his meridian altitude. The days will decrease, the sunrise and sunset points move south, and the sun will each day be lower in the heavens until the solstice when the sun reaches his extreme southern declination and turns his face slowly northward.

ing the month. The further the sun moves to the south the shorter is the circuit he makes in the heavens and the less in his meridian altitude. The days will decrease, the sunrise and sunset points move south, and the sun will each day be lower in the heavens until the solstice when the sun reaches his extreme southern declination and turns his face slowly northward.

SECRET SOCIETIES.

Mr. H. W. Mordhurst Again Honored by the Master Masons.

The grand council of Royal and Select Master Masons of the state closed its session at Indianapolis yesterday and Mr. H. W. Mordhurst, of this city, was promoted to the position of deputy illustrious grand master, having been grand illustrious master last year. Recorder Bramwell, in his report, showed that there were at present forty-one councils in the state and a membership of 1,850. The receipts for the year were $2,055.35 and the present balance $1,033.03. The reports of the treasurer and other officers and the various committees were heard.

The grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons met yesterday with Mortimer Nye, Laporte, grand high priest, presiding.

The grand council of the Improved Order of Red Men began its annual session there yesterday, Christopher McGregor, grand sachem, of Indianapolis, presiding, and each of the seventy-six lodges in the state was represented by a delegate.

The sixth annual session of the supreme lodge, U. O. H., began yesterday in Indianapolis. The work was confined to the reception of new delegates and the report of the officers, and the session will continue throughout Friday.

Personal Mention.

A Renoko correspondent in the Huntington Herald says:

Harry Medsker, of Fort Wayne, was in the city Monday night.

Mrs. J. C. Cotton and children are visiting Mrs. Cotton's parents in Fort Wayne.

J. B. Haller, of Fort Wayne, was in Andrews a short time Sunday, visiting his parents.

Minnie Dirst, who has been visiting Nellie Morgan the past week, returned to her home in Fort Wayne, Monday.

Addie Davis, one of Fort Wayne's most popular young ladies, was visiting her brother, M. E. Davis, of this city, last week.

Still Standing.

The democratic county central committee, believing in the constitutional right of the people to peacefully assemble and discuss public questions, and in the absolute right of free speech, and the protection of the same under the law, denounces the interference, by certain lawless persons, whoever they may be, with the political gathering at Monroeville, on the evening of October 19, 1886, as unlawful and intolerable in a free country. To the end that justice may be vindicated and the law enforced, the democratic county central committee hereby offers a reward of $50 for the apprehension and conviction of the parties who molested the public meeting held at Monroeville, on the night of October 19, 1886, by throwing eggs at or against the building in which such meeting was held, or at or against the citizens or speakers there assembled or any of them.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

THE Rothschild family, in memory of the late Baroness James de Rothschild, have sent 120,000 francs to the Bureau of Public Relief, to be distributed by the mayors of the different arrondissements to the poor of Paris. They have also decided to devote the interest of 600,000 francs to a fund created by the late Baron James de Rothschild to enable indigent persons to pay their rent when, through circumstances over which they have no control, they are unable to do so unless assisted.

A NEWSPAPER man in Minneapolis one day caught a young woman as she was falling in the street. A few days after he met her at the house of a friend, and they were introduced. A few months after he asked her to marry him, and she said "yes." A few hours after they were married, and not until then, he learned that she was worth $75,000.

MR. T. P. KEATOR.

The Leading Labor Organ of Indiana Demands His Withdrawal from the Stump or the Noble Order.

Mr. T. P. Keator recently delivered a republican speech at Lafayette and was heralded there as a leading Knight of Labor. The Labor World, of that city, edited by A. Williams, H. S. Saltzgaber and W. S. Leflew, and recognized and announced as the official organ of the Knights of Labor, embracing the counties of Tippecanoe, Boone, Cass, Carroll, Clinton, Benton, Montgomery, Fountain, Warren, Hendricks, Howard, and Tipton, calls Mr. Keator to task in the following calm, masterly way:

"A gentleman by the name of Theron P. Keator, of Fort Wayne, made a speech to workmen at the Mascotte rink on Wednesday evening, in the interest of the republican party. Mr. K. is advertised as a 'prominent Knight of Labor,' etc., and a city paper, ignorantly, or with a desire to deceive, announced him as president of the 'State Typographical union,' a mythical organization having an existence only in the brain of the writer of the announcement. Mr. K. personally is an affable gentleman, and bears a good Knight of Labor card issued by an assembly at Fort Wayne. We have no fault to find with the gentleman in either of these respects. His being a Knight of Labor is to his credit, but we enter an earnest and stern protest when, as he is now doing, he trades upon his connection with the order and deliberately sells his influence, or supposed influence, at a set price to a political party. His private opinions and party preferences are his own, there being nothing to prevent their expression as coming from an individual, but when he goes so far as to commit the Knights of Labor to any action in the interest of any political party, he must be called down for an explanation of why he should not be expelled from the order for violation of obligations. The assembly at Fort Wayne, to which Mr. Keator is attached, should investigate the matter, as, in our opinion, he is doing incalculable injury to the order, and the cause of labor in general. The services of Mr. Keator may be valuable to the republicans, but of this fact some doubt arises. The party is the sole judge of this. As to the influence he may exercise in transferring the votes and support of the workmen to this or that party, if one may judge from the tone and character of the address delivered in this city, will amount to but little, certainly no large number. His exposition of the labor question, if such it might be called, and the desires and demands of organized wage workers, was tame and insipid, and if such expositions were correct would place the workmen in the position of the veriest minnies who were chasing a will-o'-the-wisp along the brink of destruction, or booty-like pursuing a shining bauble heedlessly, while the yawning chasm opening beneath their feet was unnoticed and unheeded. Aside from the wrong committed against the order such efforts as that of Mr. Keator must necessarily fall flat and prove unprofitable to any party employing a speaker pretending to be the custodian of the minds and consciences of the working people and who undertakes to deliver such goods at a set price. The assembly at Fort Wayne should call in his card and allow Mr. Keator to resume his position as the editor of the Gazette of that city."

SPEAKING to a newspaper correspondent the other day of the seven days' battles around Richmond, Jeff. Davis said Gen. Lee conceived and executed the desperate plan to turn the flank and rear of McClellan's army, which drove it from Richmond. He said that the failure to annihilate the Federal army was due chiefly to the fact that Gen. Lee had no maps of the country below Richmond, and that his army moved in ignorance of the country and with guides who, for the most part, proved themselves utterly inefficient. He said that Gen. Lee's object in the retreat from Petersburg was to reach Danville, and then to unite with Gen. Johnston and crush Sherman before Grant could come up.

TELL the truth.
LEND your ear to Hon. J. K. Edgerton.
THE fraud of '76 will not again be repeated if a democratic congress is on guard.
Keep the rapacious republicans and their bogus allies out of office and away from the treasury.
SENATOR SHERMAN's presence makes the election here of national importance. Democrats, will you vote your party out of power?
THE Gazette knows that brutality begets brutality, and its course towards Judge Lowry and others has developed a spirit in politics that is both indecent and uncontrollable.
THE next congress counts the electoral vote or specifies how it shall be counted. What sort of a democrat is he who tells you to send a republican to Washington to perform that sacred task?

JUDGE LOWRY.
Hon. Joseph K. Edgerton Asks Why Should He Not be Re-elected to Congress.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL.
I have noticed with much interest, the progress of the congressional canvass in this district, and with regret the animosity which has pursued the democratic candidate, Judge Lowry. His most implacable enemies, appear to be or assume to be, democrats.
It seems hardly credible, that any intelligent and fair minded man, who has any principle or conscience in his politics, and who is a democrat from conviction, should wish or work for the defeat of Judge Lowry.
Do democrats really believe that their party has any principles, or beneficent public ends to attain, by holding on to its lately and hardly won power in the federal and state governments? Do they desire, because they believe it is for the public good, democratic rather than republican government? If so, can the party afford at this critical time, to lose a member of congress from this district, or any other in Indiana? The welfare, the safety, of THE PEOPLE, is supposed to be the supreme law of American democracy, the corner stone, and the key-stone, of its organization. It is worth preserving. If it is of no moment, no public concern, whether the democrats or the republicans, hold the legislative and executive power of the United States, party organization may as well be abandoned, and every voter follow his own personal preferences as to candidates. If there be no truth, no principle in politics, let it be understood at once, that politics mean only office hunting and getting and holding, not patriotic methods and efforts for good government, for the benefit of all the people. The politics and government of this country, cannot be carried on wisely and well, on any such idea. Parties are a necessity in all free governments, and true patriotism prompts, not abandonment of parties, but their elevation and purification. The seal and vigilance of parties, guided by right motives, are the sentinels and guards of free government—checks upon mal-administration.

I would hope that it was not "the cohesive power of public plunder," but the cohesion and vitalizing power of true principle, that enabled the democratic party of the United States, through five years of civil war, and twenty-five years of obloquy and persecution and defeat, to hold fast to its organization and integrity, and to gain, step by step, upon, and finally in a fair and unquestioned election, to triumph over its adversary. Having helped his party to a great victory, why should any true democrat now, before the fruits of victory are gathered, and long desired reform effected, make haste to throw victory and power away? "Was the hope drunk," wherein the democratic party "dressed itself," in 1884? "Hath it slept since," that it should fall or falter now?

Judge Lowry in the election of 1884, had a majority of 2,550 votes in this district. If defeated now, he must be defeated by democratic votes, for no man in his senses believes, that on the distinctive questions of national politics more than 2,550 democrats have been converted from democracy to republicanism since 1884. If then Judge Lowry is to be defeated by democratic votes, it will be because of something personal to himself, making him obnoxious to democrats, even to the extremity of his political defeat and disgrace. The reason must be potent indeed, that will justify the defeat of a party candidate for congress, by his own party. Local reasons may influence local politics, but it should be a national reason to influence an election to congress, the legislative power in national politics. Judge Lowry's defeat means the election of J. B. White. I have nothing to say to the disparagement of Mr. White. He is a reputable gentleman, a self made man, a good citizen, who has won an honorable position by his own energy and efforts. The same is true of many other citizens, not candidates for congress. But why should a democrat, who is one from principle, prefer Mr. White to Judge Lowry? What is this district, with its 3,000 democratic majority, to gain by changing Judge Lowry for Mr. White? Because Judge McClellan, or Mr. Shutt, or Mr. M. Hamilton, or Mr. W. G. Colerick, was not nominated for congress at Auburn, and Judge Lowry was, should they, or other democrats, desire to work for his defeat at the polls? Should democrats therefore send a republican to congress, to the jeopardy perhaps of the democratic majority in the next house of representatives? Does true patriotism, or true democracy demand, at this time, Judge Lowry's slaughter in the house of his friends, and the giving of his place to a republican? Cannot the disappointed competitors of Judge Lowry for the nomination at Auburn realize, that to permit their personal ambition and chagrin, to sow discord in the party, is only to sow seed, the sure fruition of which must be future weakness and defeat to themselves and the party also? The welfare of a great party is more important than personal ambitions, and there are political crises, when fidelity to party is the highest patriotism. No true soldier will because of dislike to his leader, desert his flag, in the face of the enemy. It was no honor to Achilles that he "sulked in his tent" and allowed his wrath, for personal reasons, to bring "woes unnumbered" upon Greece.

I am neither the eulogist, nor the apologist of Judge Lowry. He does not need my help in either capacity. What I write has no hint or inspiration from him and is unknown to him. I write only as a private democratic citizen, who wishes well for his party, and desires to see fair play. Judge Lowry is not a carpet-bagger, nor a fresh convert or deserter, from the republican party, nor a new man among us. All the people know him. For many years, and repeated terms, he filled high judicial office, which especially tests ability and integrity—capacity for public affairs. I have never heard his judicial administration impugned. As a judge, both in the circuit and superior courts, he had the public confidence and respect. His going to congress at his mature age, could not essentially change the nature or character of the man. What has he said or done, while in congress, to forfeit the confidence of his party, or the people? Nothing, so far as I have seen evidence. He has, as was his right, influenced the appointment of some democrats to office, instead of other democrats. There is the rub. All applicants could not be appointed. But should the latter therefore become hostile or vindictive? Let infirm human nature answer that, I can give no better answer. Judge Lowry would be more than human, if he did not sometimes err or make mistakes, sometimes fail to name the right man for office. Assuming that his selections were not always the wisest or best, is he alone in that? If no better, are his appointments so much worse, than those of other congressmen, that he should be singled out for defeat in re-election, while, so far as I know, he has received the fair nomination of his party?

Whether Judge Lowry was wise or not in seeking a third term in congress, is not the question. He had a right to desire, and by fair means to gain, that mark of public approbation. Were his methods of gaining a renomination so unusual or unfair, that his competitors can truly say: "We are too good to use such means, and will have none of them?" I do not suppose that modern political canons or conventions are models or schools of all the disinterested virtues, nor that his defeated competitors have any right to say to Judge Lowry, "Stand aside, we are holier than thou!" I see no great public evil, in the fact alone, that Judge Lowry should have three terms in congress. The best congressmen are generally the long term men. For my part, if I thought Judge Lowry the right man in congress, I would as cheerfully vote to keep him there ten terms as two. The people lose more by frequent changes of congressmen, than by long terms. It is easier to get rid of the wrong man than to select the right one. Long terms serve to keep out of congress, and competition for it, the race of shallow and wordy demagogues, to whom one or two terms in congress would bring neither honor to themselves, nor good service to the people. Men are not born statesmen, nor do they grow to be such in a day. Statesmanship is a word of large meaning. It does not pertain to men of meagre knowledge or feeble powers. The functions of a legislator especially, call for knowledge, wisdom, conscience and experience, and it is the disgrace of American politics, that the standard of fitness for the law-maker, whether national, state or municipal, has fallen so low, and yearly falls lower. The elevation of our legislators in ability and character, is a greatly needed reform.

Much of sourrility has been published as to Judge Lowry's personal habits. The extravagance and palpable malignity of the charges, refute them, and stamp them as "campaign lies." As to all such stories, and their authors, it may be said: "Let him who is without sin, cast the first stone," of condemnation.

Comparisons of persons, are too often invidious, if not odious, and therefore are to be avoided, but every canvass for office will invoke comparisons. I may therefore ask, in all courtesy and good will, in what respect is Mr. White a better or more suitable man for congress than Judge Lowry, that a democrat should vote for or aid White, and not vote for or aid Lowry? Has Mr. White given any better evidence of his personal integrity, in his record as a business man and citizen, than Judge Lowry can show as a lawyer, judge and citizen? Has Mr. White better intellectual training, more knowledge, more experience, more aptitude and fitness for public affairs, or congressional duty, than Judge Lowry? If so, where is the record or the evidence? Would Mr. White be a democrat in congress, or a republican, or be a useless negative in being neither? I might pursue this line of questioning, but I forbear.

Let Judge Lowry have decent treatment. Why stultify him or his party, by untested and false abuse of him? Let him have candid judgment and justice. Let him, as a faithful public servant, and a long, well tried and faithful servant of his party, and its regular candidate for congress, have the unanimous and cordial support of his party, and his election will be assured; and this district, I trust, will not be a loser by his service for a third term. He has certainly hitherto done well for his district, and especially for Fort Wayne, and no democrat at least, should deny to him the opportunity for further valuable public service.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub wakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. FACTS FOR VOTERS.

Hon. Charles McCulloch Makes an Honest and Masterly Statement of County Affairs.

To the Editor of THE SENTINEL.

Nothing more completely baffles trickery and deception than a straightforward statement of facts. I believe that the taxpayers of Allen county and the city of Fort Wayne are honest, intelligent men, not easily bamboozled or deceived. Living in the noonday of time, they read and think and the editors of republican papers in this city will find that the triumph of truth and reason are greater than those of misrepresentation. Slander cannot make a subject either better or worse and in the long run it acts like a boomerang upon the party that resorts to it. The true and concise statement of our county affairs, made by our county treasurer, is all that is necessary to puncture the false statements of republican newspapers, and it will be published often enough for every man in the county to read it and these pretended reformers will find that "truth is mighty and will prevail."

The statement shows that the commissioners did issue $200,000 of bonds, and they bear five per cent interest, but the premium they brought, of $4,000, brings the rate of interest to about 4 1/2 per cent or less. They did this to pay off every county order that drew 6 per cent, and to give them money enough to keep the county for the future on a cash basis and at the same time not to stint in the necessary expenses of a thriving county. Several years ago, about the time Mr. Rudisill was auditor, a large number of wooden bridges, on pile foundations, were built within a period of four years. Everyone knows what kind of bridges they were from the one at Rudisill's mill and Muldoon's dam. During the last four years these bridges have had to be rebuilt or repaired at a cost of over $150,000, and in order to verify my statement I give figures of cost and location of bridges, and this will tell why for four years past the expenditures of the county have been heavy:

Wells street bridge, St. Marys river.....	$20,222 51
Paper Mill bridge, St. Joe river.....	14,490 25

Some more have yet to be built, but the work is principally done for many years to come. Allen county is the largest county in the state and has more bridges to build and keep up than any other county. She is second in wealth and manufacturing interests and had it not been for the necessary expenses above mentioned she would not have run behind one dollar. THE PEOPLE BELIEVE IN GOOD ROADS, SAFE BRIDGES, WELL MANAGED PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS, LIBERAL EXPENDITURES FOR HOSPITALS AND THE POOR.

The hospital and poor expenses alone from June 1, 1885, to June 1, 1886, were as follows, according to the report of Auditor Griebel:

Poor orders by townships trustees.....	$22,821 00
Medicine.....	982 30
Physicians.....	2,349 37
Railroad fare.....	471 25
City hospital.....	8,840 63
St. Joseph hospital.....	4,077 12
Asylum.....	6,877 15
Asylum superintendent.....	500 00
Pest house.....	35 40
Overseers of poor, township trustees.....	1,067 00
Total.....	$48,735 12

Viewing the great improvements and charities we can point with pride to our county and the paltry debt that is shown in the statement of the county treasurer is so straightforward and plainly legitimate that people never give it a moment's critical consideration. There has been no stealing. Men like William Briant, Jerome Glyod, Henry Hartman, Louis Griebel, Willis Maier, John Dalman, Judge Henoh, Judge O'Rourke don't steal. Newspapers are the only accusers that dare say they do. Individually not one of the gentlemen who edit those papers would say so. The democratic and republican platforms both agreed that one term in a four year county office was long enough. With that idea prominent the present democratic county ticket was nominated and as Mr. P. S. O'Rourke said to me a few days ago, "it is as good a ticket as was ever nominated in Allen county," and Mr. O'Rourke is a close observer and always says exactly what he means. He also said that he had known Mr. Niezer from his boyhood, and that he was the soul of honor. The laws that regulate the county officials in the banner democratic county of Allen regulates them in republican counties. Allen county's prosperity and growth has been wonderful within the past few years, and the workingmen who are building homes faster than ever all over our beautiful city, still have confidence in our public servants in spite of the attempts of newspaper gentlemen at each election to deceive them.

Respectfully,
 CHARLES MCCULLOCH.

For the relief and cure of inflammation and congestion called "a cold in the head" there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial stages of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other modes of treatment have proved of no avail.

ANSON HUGH, of Blackberry, Ills., says he owes his life to Gilmore's Magnetic Elixir. Try it.

MR. A. HIGGINS, of Wyoming, N. Y., says he had the piles for nearly 40 years, and was cured by using Gilmore's Aromatic Wine will cure you.

GILMORE'S NEURALGIA CURE is a positive cure for neuralgia in the face, side and stomach.

JOHN H. YATES, of Batavia, N. Y., says: "I cheerfully commend your AROMATIC WINE. It did new life and vigor send through this weak frame of mine. It did for all my stomach ills. More than the doctor and his pills."

A PLAIN STATEMENT. A Concise and Clear Statement of Allen County's Finances.

Owing to the misrepresentations if not absolute falsehoods of the so called People's Convention managers, concerning the financial condition of Allen county, Chairman McCulloch, of the democratic county committee, addressed a letter to Treasurer John Dalman, requesting an accurate statement of the county's affairs at the close of business, September 30, 1886. Treasurer Dalman's reply is given in full, and explains most effectively the statements made by these would be bell wethers of the people's, alias republican movement.

Hon. C. McCulloch:

In compliance with your request to furnish a statement to the public, of the condition of the treasury of Allen county, I hereby enclose such statement as shown by the books in my office at the close of business September 30, 1886:

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances, the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefitted by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

THURSDAY, OCT. 21, 1886.

THE CITY NEWS.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke is at Grand Rapids.

Hon. J. B. Stoll was in the city last evening.

H. G. Olds went to Chicago this morning.

There were four weddings at Emanuel's church to-day.

Ex-Councilman Fred C. Boltz is at home from Chicago.

Mr. Frank Falker came home last evening from Chicago.

Architects Wing and Mahurin went to Indianapolis last evening.

Mr. Gus Haas is engaged at the house of call at the Rich hotel.

Alexander McDaniels, who lives near the paper mill, is quite ill.

Mrs. Henry Goldsmith, who was seriously threatened by a throat affection, is much better.

O. C. Wyckoff, of this city, is attending a meeting of marble and granite dealers at Indianapolis.

Dr. and Mrs. K. K. Wheelock will entertain the young people of the Plymouth church to-morrow.

This is the last day of the Hebrew holidays, which continue for ten days after the Day of Atonement.

C. L. Kimbell, assistant general passenger agent of the Pittsburg company, from Cleveland, is in the city.

Dr. Will Knapp, who has been in northern Wisconsin for the past three months, returned home last evening.

The Wabash pay car engine started for St. Louis this morning, and the pay car is expected here in about a week.

John Day, who was under treatment at the Peru hospital, has returned to this city and will go to work in a few days.

Charles Stimmer, a lodger at the Washington house, was bruised in a sewer, just in the rear of Emanuel's Lutheran church, yesterday.

The Wabash has not only started railroad circles by demanding a percentage in the southwestern pools, but is fighting its creditors in the Chicago courts so vigorously as to put dismay into their ranks.

The republicans hawked Senator Sherman about town yesterday to get a democrat to introduce him. They were not accommodated and the senator left for Indianapolis a sadder and wiser man. He speaks at the state capitol to-night.

Capt. Hugh M. Diehl was instructed by a telegram from Thomas Gardner, of Clinton, Ill., to arrest Charles B. Anderson, who is wanted for forgery. Last night, Officer Rohle arrested the crook, and he is locked up to await the arrival of the Clinton officer.

A genius with a taste for statistics has figured out that the average newspaper writer makes 4,000,000 strokes with a pen each year, or a line 300 miles long. A rapid penman draws his pen through 16 1/2 feet every minute. We await statistics on the scissors work.

Gus Hilgemann, of the fire department, and Miss Louise Crousekop will be married October 28, at the German Reformed church, on West Washington street, at 6 o'clock. A reception will follow the event, and the gay fire ladies are living in high expectation.

Major Thompson, in command of the Indiana division of the Salvation army, which is now working Fort Wayne, went to Lafayette with Captain Masters and established a post. Their headquarters are to be at Pythian hall, where they opened out last night with tambourines and cymbals, and a dozen pretty singing misses with dulcimers and accordions. They propose to stay all winter.

Two young men, at present unknown, hired a team of horses and carriage from Luce Stapleford, yesterday afternoon, and this morning the vehicle and animals were found on the side of the St. Joe road, near the paper mill. The animals were driven almost to death, and finally one of them fell exhausted by the roadside. Deputy Sheriff Claumeyer brought the outfit in this morning, and Stapleford is after the brutal driver.

Senator Sherman's speech here abounded in inconsistencies and inaccuracies. It would be tedious and unprofitable to discuss his misrepresentations, and none of them deserve notice because of any harm they may accomplish by misleading the average reader. The Gazette purposely omits the prohibition and other offensive parts of his address and as a whole, the speech was a disappointment. There were no new ideas suggested and no new arguments advanced. If it had been delivered by a speaker of no reputation, the audience would have left the hall and it would be termed a failure. But coming as it does, from John Sherman, it will be called a "key note," a "powerful argument," "soothing," an "invincible."

Nye and Riley appear at Huntington to-night.

W. P. Breen went to Tiffin, Ohio, on legal business this morning.

Mrs. C. G. Smith this afternoon entertained the ladies of Plymouth church.

Engineer Barlow, of the Nickel Plate, had the fingers of his right hand crushed last night.

Mr. Isadore Lehman, of Harper, Kansas, is the guest of Mr. A. Heilbrunner, of West Main street.

John Orff's mill west of the city is now connected with a three inch water pipe for fire protection.

Frank Offenloch was acquitted yesterday by Justice Ryan on the charge of provoking John Delvin.

John Pring, the insane Cedar Creek township farmer, has been accepted for treatment at the state asylum.

Mr. Cecil Higgins assures us that he has a new hat, and is laden with the perfume of magnolia blossoms.

Messrs. J. F. Wing and M. S. Mahurin are at Indianapolis to assist in organizing a state association of architects.

Henry Woelke was provoked by Adam Bopp, the Barr street liquor vender, who was arraigned before the mayor for the offense.

Julius Kegelman has taken out a permit to build a one and a half story frame house at the corner of Wayne street and Walton avenue.

Judge O'Rourke will put his decision on record to-morrow, affecting the suit of Dr. W. H. Myers vs. the Central Union Telephone company.

Amos Hughes, a special officer at Liberty hall, had John Phillips arrested to-day for assault and battery committed last night. Mayor Muhler has the case.

Dr. C. B. Stemen returned last night from Pittsburg where he attended a meeting of the Pennsylvania railroad surgeons. All the lines in this association are now included in this association, making it the largest in the world.

Mr. Irvin Stratton, the attorney, yesterday sold to John Gilbert his residence on West Washington street for $3,800. Mr. Stratton and family will remove to Wichita, Kan., where his brother, Mr. J. Q. Stratton, enjoys a nice law practice.

Last night, P. Scherzinger and Emil F. Haberkorn returned from the forests of Michigan. They and their companions killed five deer, and are getting them here surreptitiously, as the laws of Michigan are against taking game from its precincts.

A thorough and careful reading of the Gazette's review of Senator Sherman's speech reveals the fact that it is radically different from the one he uttered last night. Some scissors' artist has neglected to consult the senator or else his words were purposely changed.

Tuesday afternoon the barn of Henry Wefel, a farmer of Preble township, Adams county, was destroyed by fire with all its contents, 241 bushels of wheat, seven hogs, fifteen tons of hay and all farm machinery. The damage is about $1,500, while the insurance amounts to only $700.

Charles Hoy and Mary J. Hant, John M. Harkenreider and Mary S. Young, Edward A. Barnes and Julia M. Morris, August Altekruuse and Mary Benz, Geo. W. Clark and Cassie McNair, Charles W. Stoffer and Edith Emily Howman, Francis M. Miller and Martha Pine have been licensed to wed.

The bill posters are fighting again, and yesterday the late Colonel Scott had Clint Bourie, of George Richards brigade, arrested for posting Louisiana lottery notices. The law is dead against this business, and it seems Orator Scott has a handy weapon to wield. Mr. Bourie will have a hearing to-morrow.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Joseph C. Straghan, surveyor general of Idaho, and Miss Alice Ramsey, of Carlyle, Illinois. The nuptials will be celebrated at the home of the bride's brother, Hon. R. N. Ramsey, Wednesday afternoon, October 27, at 1 o'clock. Mr. Straghan's home is in Fort Wayne.

The Huntington Democrat says: "At eleven o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Hubbell, Mr. Ben. Hamaker, of Marion, Ind., and Miss Mary Hubbell were united in marriage, Rev. L. B. Smith performing the ceremony. The ceremony was private, none but the family having been present, save Mrs. Judge Brackenridge and daughter, Mrs. Hill and daughter, and Mrs. Dr. Green, of Fort Wayne, who are relatives."

There was a grand meeting of democrats in the carpenter shop of Deputy Marshal Franke, in the Eighth ward, last night. The meeting, notwithstanding the storm, was largely attended, and telling speeches were made by J. M. Barrett, Hon. Robert Lowry, Hon. R. C. Bell and J. E. Graham, esq. The close attention given to each of the speakers, and the round after round of applause that followed, show that the tried and true democrats of the banner democratic ward of the city will send in rousing majorities for the entire democratic ticket—congressional, state, legislative and county. A meeting will be held at the same place, on next Wednesday evening.

Captain and Mrs. Henry McKinnie are in the city.

There is a big turkey shoot at Joe Rockhill's farm, in Lake township, to-day.

The contest at the fair between the dentists for the morning gown closes this evening.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ahern died last night and was buried this morning.

Mrs. J. D. Connor and Mrs. S. M. Blount, of Wabash, are the guests of Mrs. J. F. Beegan.

One of the huge steam dredges to work in Little river has arrived and stands on freight cars at the south depot.

Every body about George Warner's rancho has been fined by Justice France for participation in a recent row over there.

The miscreants who threw rotten eggs at Monroeville have not been discovered, although both county committees offer $50 reward.

Billy Bryant, an employe of the Olds spoke factory, was injured by a falling substance this morning and his arm was shattered so badly that Dr. W. H. Meyers had to amputate the limb at the City hospital.

Mr. John Landenberger, formerly with J. A. M. Storm, of this city, but now at Omaha, will return to this city in a few days and take a situation with the Horton Manufacturing company, as book-keeper.

At the hospitable suburban residence of Judge John Morris will occur this evening the marriage of his accomplished daughter, Miss Julia, to Mr. Edward A. Barnes, of Detroit, Mich. Orlando F. Barnes, Mrs. O. F. Barnes, Mrs. O. M. Barnes and Miss Ann H. J. Barnes, of Lansing, Michigan, are here to attend the wedding.

Hon. Montgomery Hamilton, Mr. Henry Colerick and T. E. Ellison spoke at Black's school house, in St. Joe township, last night, in advocacy of Captain J. B. White, but Mr. Hamilton urged the necessity of sending democrats to the state legislature, and Mr. Colerick warned the people against voting for Cecil Higgins and was bitter in his denunciation of W. D. Maier's treachery.

President Roberts and the Pennsylvania railroad officials remained here all night and this morning decided to forego their trip to Grand Rapids. They looked at the company's property near the depot and at the great shops, but were particular in their inspection of the shops at the east yards. They proceeded east after 8 o'clock in their special train. At Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis, and Milwaukee the magnates were the recipients of numerous attentions and courtesies, but in Fort Wayne no one was authorized to say a word in behalf of this municipality or its interests. It would be well for the officers to thaw out in this respect.

The cool winds chill the heart of the ice cart driver, and he now sits shivering on his box, a blue nosed victim of despair; the striking words "use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup" stare him in the face.

Worth its weight in gold, Salvation Oil. 25 cts.

Mr. L. Lewis, a practical and experienced optician and oculist, of Chicago, has secured quarters in the new store room of H. N. Goldsmith, No. 84 Calhoun street, for the practice of his profession. Nye and Riley. Of these renowned humorists who appear at the Temple to-morrow, Friday evening, the Bloomington, Ill., Eye says: "The audience that greeted Nye and Riley at Durley hall Monday night was cultured, well pleased and contained a very fine compliment of ladies. Nye's inimitable humor and Riley's poetic genius kept the house in a constant roar of laughter. It is a difficult thing to suppress the risibles when either of these gentlemen appear before the foot-lights."

Cor. Broadway & Jefferson,

THURSDAY, OCT. 21, 1886.

THE CITY NEWS.

Supl. P. S. O'Rourke is at Grand Rapids.

Hon. J. B. Stoll was in the city last evening.

H. G. Olds went to Chicago this morning.

There were four weddings at Emanuel's church to-day.

Ex-Congressman Fred C. Holt is at home from Chicago.

Mr. Frank Walker came home last evening from Chicago.

Architects Wing and Mahurin went to Indianapolis last evening.

Mr. Gus Hues is engaged at the house of call at the Rich hotel.

Alexander McDaniels, who lives near the paper mill, is quite ill.

Mrs. Henry Goldsmith, who was seriously threatened by a throat affection, is much better.

O. C. Wyckoff, of this city, is attending a meeting of marble and granite dealers at Indianapolis.

Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Wheelock will entertain the young people of the Plymouth church to-morrow.

This is the last day of the Hebrew holidays, which continue for ten days after the Day of Atonement.

C. L. Kimball, assistant general passenger agent of the Pittsburg company, from Cleveland, is in the city.

Dr. Will Knapp, who has been in northern Wisconsin for the past three months, returned home last evening.

The Washah pay car engine started for St. Louis this morning, and the pay car is expected here in about a week.

John Day, who was under treatment at the Peru hospital, has returned to this city and will go to work in a few days.

Charles Stimmer, a lodger at the Washington house, was burned in a sewer, just in the rear of Emanuel's Lutheran church, yesterday.

The Washah has not only startled railroad circles by demanding a percentage in the southwestern pools, but is fighting its creditors in the Chicago courts vigorously as to put down its ranks.

The republicans hawked Senator Sherman about town yesterday to get a demand to introduce him. They were not recommended and the senator left for Indianapolis a madder and wiser man. He speaks at the state capital to-night.

Capt. Hugh M. Diehl was instructed by a telegram from Thomas Gardner, of Clinton, Ill., to arrest Charles D. Anderson, who is wanted for forgery. Last night, Officer Robie arrested the crook, and he is locked up to await the arrival of the Clinton officer.

A genius with a taste for statistics has figured out that the average newspaper writer makes 4,000,000 strokes with a pen each year, or a line 300 miles long. A rapid penman draws his pen through 104 feet every minute. We await statistics on the newsroom work.

One Higginson, of the fire department, and Miss Louise Cronseckop will be married October 28, at the German Reformed church, on West Washington street, at 8 o'clock. A reception will follow the event, and the gay fire ladies are living in high expectation.

Major Thompson, in command of the Indiana division of the Salvation army, which is now working Fort Wayne, went to Lafayette with Captain Masters and established a post. Their headquarters are to be at Pythian hall, where they opened out last night with tambourines and cymbals, and a dozen pretty singing misses with dulcimers and accordions. They propose to stay all winter.

Two young men, at present unknown, hired a team of horses and carriage from Lince Stapleford, yesterday afternoon, and this morning the vehicle and animals were driven almost to death, and finally one of them fell exhausted by the roadside. Deputy Sheriff Clausmeyer brought the outfit in this morning, and Stapleford is after the brutal driver.

Senator Sherman's speech here abounded in inconsistencies and inaccuracies. It would be tedious and unprofitable to discuss his misrepresentations, and none of them deserve notice because of any harm they may accomplish by misleading the average reader. The Gazette purposely omits the prohibition and other offensive parts of his address and as a whole, the speech was a disappointment. There were no new ideas suggested and no new arguments advanced. If it had been delivered by a speaker of no reputation, the audience would have left the hall and it would have formed a failure. But coming as it does, from John Sherman, it will be called a "key-note," a "powerful argument," "weathering," an "invincible."

Nye and Riley appear at Huntington to-night.

W. P. Breen went to Tiffin, Ohio, on legal business this morning.

Mrs. C. G. Smith this afternoon entertained the ladies of Plymouth church.

Engineer Barlow, of the Nickel Plate, had the fingers of his right hand crushed last night.

Mr. Isadore Lehman, of Harper, Kansas, is the guest of Mr. A. H. Hildebrand, of West Main street.

John Orr's mill west of the city is now connected with a three inch water pipe for fire protection.

Frank Offenloch was acquitted yesterday by Justice Ryan on the charge of procuring John Delvin.

John Fring, the insane Cedar Creek township farmer, has been accepted for treatment at the state asylum.

Mr. Cell Higgins assures us that he has a new hat, and is laden with the perfume of magnolia blossoms.

Messrs. J. F. Wing and M. S. Mahurin are at Indianapolis to assist in organizing a state association of architects.

Henry Woebke was provoked by Adam Dopp, the Barr street liquor vender, who was assigned before the mayor for the offense.

Julius Kegelman has taken out a permit to build a one and a half story frame house at the corner of Wayne street and Wallou avenue.

Judge O'Rourke will put his decision on record to-morrow, affecting the suit of Dr. W. H. Myers vs. the Central Union Telephone company.

Amos Hughes, a special officer at Liberty hall, had John Phillips arrested to-day for assault and battery committed last night. Mayor Muller has the case.

Dr. C. B. Stames returned last night from Pittsburg where he attended a meeting of the Pennsylvania railroad surgeons. All the lines in this association are now included in this association, making it the largest in the world.

Mr. Irvin Stratton, the attorney, yesterday sold to John Gilbert his residence on West Washington street for $3,800. Mr. Stratton and family will remove to Wichita, Kan., where his brother, Mr. J. Q. Stratton, enjoys a nice law practice.

Last night, P. Scherzinger and Emil F. Haberkorn returned from the forests of Michigan. They and their companions killed five deer, and are getting them here scriptiously, as the laws of Michigan are against taking game from its precincts.

A thorough and careful reading of the Gazette's review of Senator Sherman's speech reveals the fact that it is radically different from the one he uttered last night. Some senators' names are neglected to consult the senator or else his words were purposely changed.

Tuesday afternoon the barn of Henry Wolf, a farmer of Preble township, Adams county, was destroyed by fire with all its contents, 241 bushels of wheat, seven hogs, fifteen loads of hay and all farm machinery. The damage is about $1,500, while the insurance amounts to only $700.

Charles Hay and Mary J. Hunt, John M. Harkender and Mary S. Young, Edward A. Barnes and Julia M. Morris, August Altkruse and Mary Benz, Geo. W. Clark and Cassie McVair, Charles W. Stoffer and Edith Emily Bowman, Francis M. Miller and Martha Pine have been licensed to wed.

The bill posters are fighting again, and yesterday the late Colonel Scott had Clint Bourie, of George Richards brigade, arrested for posting Louisiana lottery notices. The law is dead against this business, and it seems Orestes Reatt has a handy weapon to wield. Mr. Bourie will have a hearing to-morrow.

Invitations are sent for the wedding of Joseph C. Stranghan, surveyor general of Idaho, and Miss Alice Ramsey, of Caryle, Illinois. The nuptials will be celebrated at the home of the bride's brother, Hon. R. N. Ramsey, Wednesday afternoon, October 27, at 1 o'clock. Mr. Stranghan's home is in Fort Wayne.

The Huntington Democrat says: "At seven o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mrs. A. A. Hubbard, Mr. Ben. Hamaker, of Marion, Ind., and Miss Mary Hubbard were united in marriage. Rev. L. B. Smith performing the ceremony. The ceremony was private, none but the family having been present, save Mrs. Judge Brackemridge and daughter, Mrs. Hill and daughter, and Mrs. Dr. Crowe, of Fort Wayne, who are relatives."

There was a grand meeting of democrats in the carpenter shop of Deputy Marshal Franke, in the Eighth ward, last night. The meeting, notwithstanding the storm, was largely attended, and telling speeches were made by J. M. Barrett, Hon. Robert Lowry, Hon. R. O. Bell and J. E. Graham, rep. The close attention given to each of the speakers, and the round after round of applause that followed, show that the tried and true democrats of the hamner democratic ward of the city will send in rousing majorities for the entire democratic ticket—congressional, state, legislative and county. A meeting will be held at the same place, on next Wednesday evening.

Captain and Mrs. Henry McKinnis are in the city.

There is a big turkey shoot at Jon Rockhill's farm, in Lake township, to-day.

The contest at the fair between the dentists for the morning gown closes this evening.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Aher died last night and was buried this morning.

Mrs. J. D. Connor and Mrs. S. M. Blum, of Wabash, are the guests of Mrs. J. F. Beegun.

One of the huge steam dredges to work in Little river has arrived and stands on freight cars at the south depot.

Every body about George Warner's ranch has been fined by Justice France for participation in a recent row over there.

The miscreants who threw rotten eggs at Monroville have not been discovered, although both county committees offer $50 reward.

Billy Bryant, an employe of the Olds spoke factory, was injured by a falling substance this morning and his arm was shattered so badly that Dr. W. H. Meyers had to amputate the limb at the City hospital.

Mr. John Laulenberger, formerly with J. A. M. Storm, of this city, but now at Omaha, will return to this city in a few days and take a situation with the Horton Manufacturing company, as book-keeper.

At the hospitable suburban residence of Judge John Morris will occur this evening the marriage of his accomplished daughter, Miss Julia, to Mr. Edward A. Barnes, of Detroit, Mich.

Orlando F. Barnes, Mrs. O. F. Barnes, Mrs. O. M. Barnes and Miss Ann E. J. Barnes, of Lansing, Michigan, are here to attend the wedding.

Hon. Montgomery Hamilton, Mr. Henry Colerick and T. R. Ellison spoke at Black's school house, in St. Joe township, last night, in advocacy of Captain J. B. White, but Mr. Hamilton urged the necessity of sending democrats to the state legislature, and Mr. Colerick warned the people against voting for Cell Higgins and was bitter in his denunciation of W. D. Maier's treasury.

President Roberts and the Pennsylvania railroad officials remained here all night and this morning decided to forego their trip to Grand Rapids. They looked at the company's property near the depot and at the great shops, but were particular in their inspection of the shops at the east yards. They proceeded east after 8 o'clock in their special train. At Kansas City, Omaha, Minneapolis, and Milwaukee the managers were the recipients of numerous attentions and courtesies, but in Fort Wayne no one was authorized to say a word in behalf of this municipality or its interests. It would be well for the officers to thank out in this respect.

The cool winds chill the heart of the ice cart driver, and he now sits shivering in his box, a blue nosed victim of despair, the striking words "Hush Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup" stare him in the face.

Worth its weight in gold, Salvation Oil. 25 cts.

Nye and Riley.

Of these renowned humorists who appear at the Temple to-morrow, Friday evening, the Bloomington, Ill., Eye says: "The audience that greeted Nye and Riley at Dorley hall Monday night was cultured, well pleased and contained a very fine compliment of ladies. Nye's inimitable humor and Riley's poetic genius kept the house in a constant roar of laughter. It is a difficult thing to suppress the risibles when either of these gentlemen appear before the footlights."

Charles A. Roberts, of East Wilson, N. Y., had thirteen scrofulous ulcers on his face and neck. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured.

PERCY A. RANDALL.

On to 4th day of last September one Perry A. Randall was a candidate before the democratic county convention, of this county, for judge of the superior court.

Mr. Randall pledged himself to support the nonchance of the convention in the following words:

P. A. Randall: "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the convention, I pledge myself to support the nominees of this convention. Under your rule, I believe that is all the speech I can make."

If Randall is an HONORABLE MAN, he will stand by his pledge. Oct 21st
